PROGRAM FOR DEVELOPING AND CREDENTIALING OFFICIALS

In order to provide equitable and uniform officiating for Para Powerlifting Athletes within the United States of America, USA Para Powerlifting adopted a clinical protocol for developing and classifying USA Local and Regional Referees. Ultimately, by successfully undertaking the training/credentialing pathway and available officiating opportunities, interested individuals will have the opportunity to become IPC/ World Para Powerlifting Referees.

USAPP MANDATORY REFEREE CLINICS -- WHO MAY TEACH CLINICS?

Any current IPC Recognized Cat. I or Cat. II Referee in good standing with the IPC and USAPP, can teach the clinics after attending one clinic at each level and being recognized as a trainer by the USA Para Powerlifting High Performance Referees Committee. This designation is accompanied by appointment to the High Performance Referees Committee.

At these clinics, the candidates will learn the methodology of uniform application of specific rules and protocols defined in the IPC Handbook. The USA Para Powerlifting rules handbook is the IPC Handbook. The Clinics are designed to take any person, with or without prior experience, who's interested in becoming a USA Para Powerlifting referee, through the local level on the pathway to becoming a National IPC Referee. It is virtually impossible to become wholly proficient in understanding and applying the rules and regulations of performance and administration with only a few hours of training. Therefore, we have adopted a multi-level specificity of training program. It includes didactic, hands on, and real-time training. To be certified at any specific officiating level, it will be necessary to attend the corresponding certification clinic and demonstrate proficiency by passing both a written and practical test.

Please note: that these clinics may be changed at any time as circumstances dictate.
